

TRANSATLANTIC SUMMIT NEW YORK UNITED NATIONS 2023

16 - 17
NOVEMBER

Affirming universal human rights

Uniting cultures for life, family
and fundamental freedoms

POLITICAL NETWORK FOR VALUES

The Political Network for Values is a transcontinental platform of political leaders committed to the defense of human rights, particularly those referred to protecting life, family and fundamental freedoms. It provides a space of encounter and exchange of reflections and political experiences.

The Network and its allied organizations will gather representatives from Europe, the Americas and other regions of the world in its 5th Transatlantic Summit, which will be held in the United Nations' Headquarters in New York, on the occasion of the 75th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The Summit will unite leaders from different cultures celebrating human rights and reminding the world of the urgency of committing to their defense.
