

POLITICAL NETWORK FOR VALUES

How far can we get?

STATEMENT

WE CELEBRATE JOSÉ ANTONIO KAST'S HISTORIC VICTORY WITH JOY AND HOPE

Political Network for Values salutes the Chilean people for today's historic democratic process and congratulates José Antonio Kast on his election as President of the Republic.

José Antonio is one of the longest-standing members of our Network and served as its president for two years, during which time he consolidated PNfV's vocation as a hub for generating synergies, articulated around a common agenda of values.

His career, characterized by a firm, courageous, and serene commitment to the dignity of every human being, freedom, the culture of life, and the strengthening of the family as a pillar of society, is a guide and an incentive for all of us.

We accompany this new stage with joy and hope, confident that our beloved Andean nation will benefit from the leadership of a man who understands politics as a vocation of service and who believes that public institutions must place the person at the center.

God bless José Antonio, his family, his collaborators, and the entire Chilean nation.
